The 11th Choral Weekend organised by Northern Voices and Eden Valley Holidays will take place from the evening of Friday, June 23rd, 2017 until the Sunday afternoon, June 25th.

Tutor/Leader/Instructor

Our leader this year will be Ruth Evans. Ruth is a Producer for Welsh National Opera, specialising in Youth & Community opera. Originally from Ruthin in North Wales, Ruth is an undergraduate of Oxford University (St Edmund Hall) with a choral scholarship. In 2012 she completed a MA in music from Bangor University, studying voice, Arts Administration and Editorial Musicology (based on Welsh female composer Grace Williams). Outside of Welsh National Opera Ruth is an active choral conductor and is on the tutor team for Cansing (www.cansing.org.uk), UK choral charity Sing for Pleasure (www.singforpleasure.org.uk) and Morland Choristers' Camp.

We have not had anybody here previously with an operatic background, and I am the first to say that I know very little about opera. I am very much looking forward to learning more.

Whether or not you think that opera is your 'thing', do come and join us!

Location

The weekend is based at Newby End Farm, and you can see pictures of the place and find out what else we get up to on our website, www.newbyendfarm.co.uk. We will be singing in the barn there and you can see pictures of that at www.newbyendfarm.co.uk/barn.html

Accommodation

You might like to stay on our caravan / camp site here at Newby End Farm. This is fully equipped with showers, washhouse, WC, electric hook-ups and Elsan disposal point. (You are welcome to extend your stay here before or after the Choral Weekend, but do please book in advance.)

For those who prefer the luxury of bed-and-breakfast, we have a few places in or near Morland / Newby where this can be arranged at a price of £29.00 per head per night. When we run out of these, or if you prefer more luxury, there are holiday cottages, other B&Bs and various small hotels in the area. I will gladly send you a list of these on request.
