The 33rd Morland Folk Dance Week

What's it all about?

The Folk Dance Week has evolved traditions of its own, and these live on. We also try to develop and change a little!

Our philosophy is based on the belief that our dances, old and new, are a priceless inheritance and that our pleasure in dancing them is enhanced immeasurably when we dance them well, concentrating on embodying the music and without the need for constant calling. We aim to give dancers the opportunity to dance the final turns of each dance unassisted by the caller.

Staff

Ian Jones and Kendal Green will be joined again by Dave and Victoria Yeomans (aka Deo Volente) to provide the music and the musicians' workshops, and, as usual, Ian and Vic will add to the roster of callers. Do remember to bring your instruments for Dave's and Victoria's workshops and your voices to join Ian's ever-growing band of singers!

English Folk Dancing has always excited much interest in the Low Countries and we are very excited this year to be welcoming Simone Verheyen from Holland to join the staff. A different perspective on our dances is always refreshing and enlightening and we are greatly looking forward to her input. We are also looking forward to giving 3 of our regular 'guest' callers – Trevor Monson, Paul Gavens and Andrea Stodell – more opportunities to share their expertise.

Timetable

The week begins with Saturday dinner at 6.15 in the Village Hall, followed by dancing from about 7.45. Morning sessions run from 9.30 until 1.00 and afternoon sessions from 2.15 until 5.15.

Daily sessions (Monday to Thursday):

1. Dance technique.
2. Social dances from our guest callers..
3. Themed sessions from Simone, Vic and Ian.
4. Harmony singing & band playing (alternate days).
There will be dancing, to recorded music, in the main hall if required.

NB. Friday will again be a different programme to allow for an extended performance by the singers and the players from those workshops.

Each evening dance starts at 7.45. All the callers will share the calling and Deo Volente and Kendal Green the playing.

Session 4: please let us know if you would like to join the band workshop session and what instrument you play. For the harmony singing session reading music is not a requirement.

Wednesday in the daytime is a free day! This gives you an opportunity to explore the area and, if you wish, to go to the Theatre by the Lake in Keswick for the matinee performance of one of their summer productions.

Accommodation and meals.

We have at Newby End Farm a caravan and camp site with showers, washhouse, WC, electric hook-ups and Elsan disposal point. This is available throughout the season and you are welcome to extend your stay before or after the Folk Dance Week, but do please book in advance.

For those who prefer the luxury of bed-and-breakfast, we have a limited number of places in or near Morland where this can be arranged at a price of £30.00 per head per night. When we run out of these, or if you prefer more luxury, there are holiday cottages and other B&Bs. I will gladly send you a list of these on request.

Meals in the Village Hall will again be provided by Jackie Kirkpatrick and her team from Eden Valley Catering. Light lunches cost £6.00, and the 3-course Dinners cost £13.00. You can't get better value than that!

Capacity and deposit payments

Everybody on the mailing list will know that we now have a fairer way of taking bookings and deposit payments. The problem is that the comfortable capacity of Morland Village Hall is 50, so we are asking you please to send in your booking form without any deposit payment. At the end of January, if we have 50 people or fewer, all will be accepted and will then be asked to pay their deposit. If there are more than 50, we will draw lots, and the first 50 out of the hat will be allocated places.

Prices for this year are as follows:

Season ticket (Covers staffing and village hall costs)	£110.00
Lunches(Sun-Tues; Thurs & Fri)	£30.00
Dinners	£90.00
Caravan/Camping	£49.00
-hook-up per unit	£35.00
Bed and Breakfast	£210.00

All the above items are listed on the application form, and all except the caravan hook-up are per head for the whole week

Please indicate your choice on the form and send it by post or e-mail to:

David Jones, Newby End Farm, Newby, Penrith, Cumbria. CA10 3EX
who will be pleased to answer queries, send out further leaflets, etc.

At the end of January, we will be able to say who has a place, and we will then ask for deposit payments (see the note above).

Cancellations. If circumstances force you to cancel, I will do my best to fill the vacancy, but I cannot guarantee to return deposits after Friday June 30th.

LIABILITY Whilst all reasonable care will be taken, neither the organisers nor their servants can be held liable for any loss, damage or injury, howsoever suffered, which may affect people on the Folk Dance Week.

DATA PROTECTION ACT The legislation now covers paper and electronic records. Our lists are not used for any purposes other than the Dancing Weeks, and only Jenny and David Jones have access to them.
